

KISRA TO HOST A GRANT WRITING TRAINING

Tuesday • November 1, 2016 • 9am – 5pm
Embassy Suites, Charleston, WV

About the Training:

This hands-on training teaches new and experienced individuals and leaders from churches, community and non-profit organizations Best Practices for writing Winning Grant Proposals.

Training Objectives:

- Demonstrate, step-by-step, how to successfully write/complete each section of a winning grant proposal.
- Guide attendees through developing an effective budget for your proposal.
- Teach attendees where to locate government and foundation funding in 2016!

REGISTER NOW!!

$159.00 – Early Bird Rate Thru October 26th

$199.00 – Registration Closes October 30th

After the training, attendees will be invited to demonstrate their learning by submitting a proposal for a chance to win a $500 Grant!

About the Trainer

@GP4FF

globalpartnersff.com

Patrick J. Patterson, MSW, MPH is President of Global Partners for Fathers and Families, LLC. As a grant writer, Mr. Patterson has written and led grant writing efforts that have successfully resulted in more than $51 Million in grant awards from Federal, State, and Private Foundation funding sources, including multimillion dollar Federal grant awards during both President George W. Bush & President Barack Obama Administrations.

Over his career, Mr. Patterson he has effectively delivered more than 700 trainings, consultations & workshops with public/private agencies in 42 states, the US Virgin Islands & 4 countries during his near 20-year career.

For questions or more information, call 304.532.8976

Attendee Feedback

"Attending the grant writing training afforded me the confidence needed to write the first grant for my organization. Prior to attending this course I wouldn't have thought we would land our very first attempt at securing grant funds, but armed with this invaluable training, WE WON OUR FIRST GRANT!"

~ Zakiya Esper, Executive Director,
Sowing Seeds into the Midlands, Columbia, SC

"I have served as an executive director for 18 years. Patrick taught proven techniques that have already proven valuable to our organization. It's truly the "BEST" grant writing training that I've ever attended!"

~ Kim Best, Executive Director,
Family Resource Center, Raleigh, NC

KISRA

Championing Positive Community Change

KISRA is a faith-motivated initiative established in 1993. We are a 501(c)(3) organization that was started by Ferguson Memorial Baptist Church located in Dunbar, West Virginia.

THE EMPOWERMENT CENTER | 131 Perkins Avenue | Dunbar, West Virginia 25064
304.768.8924 or 877.34KISRA | KISRA.ORG